THE SERVICES OF THANKSGIVING

Special Exercises in Churches of All Denominations To-Day.

The religious services of Thanksgiving will be a feature of the day, and will absorb the attention of church-goers during the morning. Every denomination will have some testimonial of thank and gratitude for the favors of a past year.

Among the Catholics and the Episcopalians there will be services in each church. The former will celebrate the occasion as a holiday of obligation with masses as on Sunday; holy communion will be dispensed at each Episcopal church.

Two services will be held by the Presbyterians—one in the morning and one at night. At the morning service, which will be held at the Grace-Street Church, the Rev. D. K. Wallhall, of Chestnut Hill, will preach, and a collection will be taken for the Richmond Home for Ladies. In the evening the services will be held at Hope-Memorial and Dr. Russell Cecil, pastor of the Second Church, will preach. On this occasion the collection will be for the benefit of the Presbyterian Orphanage.

With the Methodists a union service will be held at 11 o'clock at Broad-Street. Dr. H. E. Johnson, of Laurel-Street, will preach. A special musical programme will be rendered. At night the ladies of the Laurel-Street Church will give their annual Thanksgiving supper in the lecture-room of the church. Dr. John Hannon will be present and will deliver a lecture on "His Early Childhood."

The Baptists will unite in service at the First Church, where the exercises will begin at 11 o'clock. A special musical programme will be rendered. The sermon will be preached by the Rev. H. W. Battle, D. D., of Petersburg. The collection will be for the benefit of the Baptist Home for Aged Women.

Another service will be held at the same hour at the Pine-Street Church, where the Rev. E. V. Baldy will preach. The offering here will be for the same purpose.

A service will also be held at the West View Church at 10:30 o'clock in the morning.

A union service will be held at the Seventh-Street Church by the Disciples. The Rev. Preston A. Cave, pastor of the Third Church, will preach the sermon. A collection, which will be made as large as possible, will be for the benefit of the benevolent institution of the city.

Thanksgiving services will also be held in the Jewish Synagogue, at Beth Abrahah, Rabbis N. Calisch will preach at 11 o'clock.

LAWMAKERS WILL ALL GIVE THANKS

Legislature Takes Recess Until To-Morrow.

FOR THE RELIEF OF FIREMEN

Mr. Bland, of Portsmouth, Reoffers His Bill in the House—Folkes Bill to Compel Semi-Monthly Settlements at Mines—Dull Day.

The session of the Legislature yesterday was brief and lacking in public interest. The two houses adjourned over for Thanksgiving and will reconvene for business at noon to-morrow.

In both branches memorials from taxpayers of the city of Lynchburg were offered, asking that commissioners of the revenue be made appointive by the Circuit Court. Mr. Jennings offered these papers in the House, while they were presented in the Senate by Mr. Halsey. Hon. Charles T. Bland offered in the House a bill for the relief of disabled firemen, and Mr. Folkes presented a bill requiring semi-monthly settlements at the mining and manufacturing institutions of the State. There were no bills offered in the Senate, and the session of that body lasted only for a few moments.

Indications are that there will be but little more legislative business during the week, as a great many of the members who went home for Thanksgiving will not return to the city until Monday.

In the House.

The House was called to order at noon by Speaker Ryan, and prayer was offered by Rev. John H. Dickinson, of the Church of the Holy Comforter.

Mr. Jennings offered resolutions and petitions from business men in Lynchburg asking that the office of Commissioner of the Revenue be made appointive.

Leaves of absence were granted to many members, who desired to go home to spend Thanksgiving.

On motion of Mr. Cunningham, the House, at 12:30 o'clock P. M., adjourned until noon to-morrow.

BILLS PRESENTED.

By Mr. Charles T. Bland: For the relief of disabled firemen and families of deceased firemen.

By Mr. Edwards: To amend the charter of the Virginia Casket, Cemetery, Burial and Crematory Company.

By Mr. Purdy: To provide for a fence law election in certain districts in Greensville county.

By Mr. Folkes: Requiring semi-monthly payments of employees of mining and manufacturing institutions.

By Mr. Stearnes: For the protection of sheep and other stock in Virginia.

By Mr. Purdy: In relation to the fence laws of Greensville.

By Mr. Newhouse: To authorize the registration of Dr. B. F. Gaines as a veterinary surgeon.

By Mr. Gardner: To amend certain acts in relation to northside district in Henrico county.

Brief Senate Session.

The Senate session lasted just two minutes. The body was called to order at noon by Lieutenant-Governor Willard. Clerk Butten began the reading of the journal, but this had not advanced far before, upon motion, he was called upon to leave off. The motion to adjourn until Friday at noon was adopted.

The Senate finds itself in the predicament of not being able to do much until the Pollard issue, supplementary to the Code of 1887, is secured. This will be in a few days, and the work will proceed then regularly if not rapidly, made and carried by unanimous vote.

CONE TO MISSISSIPPI

Dr. J. William Jones Will Deliver His Lectures in the Southern States.

Dr. J. William Jones, secretary and superintendent of the Confederate Memorial Association, left the city yesterday (Wednesday) to meet some lecture engagements in Mississippi and will be absent ten days or two weeks.

Dr. Jones has taken rooms at No. 105 North Twenty-ninth Street, and has entered vigorously on his new work. He is using his Confederate lectures to promote the interest he represents, and he seems very hopeful of completing in the not distant future this great enterprise of building in Richmond a magnificent Confederate Hall in which shall be gathered the material for the history of the war between the States.

Sarah McDonald Sheridan Coming.

The fourth entertainment of the Association course will be given in the Y. M. C. A. Hall next Monday evening at 8:30 o'clock by the Slimes-Sheridan Concert Company. There will be a programme of vocal and instrumental numbers. Popular and classical Mrs. Sarah McDonald Sheridan, a Southern woman, who has a deep contralto, is the soloist. She will be assisted by Miss Siemens, whose record as a pianiste has called forth unstinted praise.

Seats go on sale Friday at 1 o'clock.

Correct—Attest: JAS. N. BOYD, W. J. WESTWOOD, T. WM. PEMBERTON, Directors.
